

I am appalled that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Whatever happened to the Fairness Doctrine? We've all been told that concentrated media ownership won't impact public discourse. This is an obvious example of a partisan use of the PUBLIC airwaves. What is the FCC doing in response?